4 Which opinion do you support and why? Provide your arguments and examples.

> I really think using AI for schoolwork is just cheating. I remember in high school, I had to write a big paper on Shakespeare, and it took me forever! I learned so much by struggling through it, but if I'd just used AI, I would've missed out on that whole experience.

Mike

> I love AI for my homework! It helps me understand tough subjects better. Just last week, I was trying to get a grip on calculus, and the AI broke it down for me in a way that made sense, like showing me step-by-step solutions
