Hi Jack! How's the weather there in the USA?

Hey Maria! It's great. Spring has finally arrived and I'm loving the warm weather. What about you?

Oh, it's quite different here in Argentina. We're in autumn now, so it's getting cold, the landscape turns vibrant with different colors and then leaves are falling from the trees.

That sounds beautiful. Do people do anything special during autumn in Argentina?

Yes, we have many traditional festivals to celebrate the harvest season. And since it's not too hot or cold, outdoor activities like hiking and picnics are popular. What about in the US during spring?

Well, everyone is excited for baseball season to start and parks are filled with people having BBQs and playing sports. People also go on road trips to see the cherry blossoms.

Wow, that all sounds amazing. Maybe I'll visit the US next spring to experience it myself.

Definitely, and I would love to come to Argentina for your fall festivals someday.
