Reading

Exercise 2. Read the blog post of a woman from a small town in Virginia that tells about her preparations for Halloween. Fill in the gaps with the articles “a” or “the”.

Halloween is my favourite holiday. I love it because it's scary!
 In the morning, I go to _____(1) shop and buy _____(2) big orange pumpkin and some candles. In the afternoon, I carve _____(3) face in _____(4) pumpkin and put _____(5) candles inside. Then I put _____(6) pumpkin outside my front door.
 At night, I turn off all the lights in the house and light _____(7) pumpkin. Then I wait for the children from all over our town to come. Some of the children are wearing costumes - there is _____(8) ghost, _____(9) witch, _____(10) zombie next to my house. They walk up the stairs and then they stop. They look at the house with big eyes. There are lots of spiders on the windows and the walls. There is _____(11) witch on _____(12) broomstick on the roof and there are ghosts in the trees. The children are scared! They don't want to come to my house! They run away and they scream! But after that, they come back and they say 'Trick or treat?' I give them sweets and chocolate. My neighbours don't like Halloween but I love it!

Exercise 3. Answer the questions about the text:

- 1. Why is Halloween the author's favourite holiday?
- 2. What does the author do in the morning on Halloween?
- 3. How does the author decorate their house for Halloween?
- 4. How do the children react when they first see the author's house on Halloween?
- 5. How do the author's neighbours feel about Halloween?
